The background of the slide is a photograph of a dark brick wall. The wall is densely populated with security cameras of various models and colors (black and silver). The cameras are arranged in a somewhat grid-like pattern, covering most of the wall's surface. In the lower-left corner, two people are standing, looking up at the cameras. One person is wearing a dark jacket and the other a brown jacket. A dark door is visible in the lower-right corner of the wall. The title 'Privacy Tools and Resources' is overlaid in large white text on the left side of the image.
